

Nonprofit Factors To Consider

Be sure to understand each of the following factors before engaging with the insurance company.

Knowledge is the key to a successful claim outcome.

②	What is my broker's/agent's role?
②	Does the adjuster work for us or the insurance company? Why they can't work for both. Conflict.
②	Can I compensate employees who help with cleaning or restoration?
②	How quickly can we get started rebuilding?
②	How does the event affect volunteers?
②	How does the event affect donations?
②	How to quantify long-term effects of less effective community outreach?
⊘	Is the insurance company using an independent building or equipment consultant to prepare a bid? Who are these consultants? Who are they working for? Do they only work for insurance companies?
②	Continuing services to the congregation or the communities serviced. Best practices to continue.
	Does the insurance company pay for professionals necessary to evaluate our claim? Are they working for us or them?
②	Is there coinsurance in my policy? What does it mean?
	How does our policy address increased costs due to new codes? If our coverage is limited, what can we do about it?
②	Will the insurance company pay for a construction manager?
⊘	Utilizing extra expense coverage to secure "E-Space" for classrooms off-campus.
