

Religious Organization Property Damage Claim Factors To Consider

Be sure to understand each of the following factors before engaging with the insurance company.

Knowledge is the key to a successful claim outcome.

$\bigcirc$	What is my broker's/agent's role?
②	Does the adjuster work for us or the insurance company? Why they can't work for both. Conflict.
	Does the insurance company pay for professionals necessary to evaluate my claim? Are they working for us or them?
②	How quickly can we get started rebuilding?
②	Is there coinsurance in our policy? What does it mean?
②	How does the event affect volunteers?
②	How does the event affect donations?
②	Continuing services to the congregation or the communities serviced. Best practices to continue.
②	Items of religious and/or historical significance. How do we deal with them?
②	Utilizing extra expense coverage to secure "E-Space" for classrooms off-campus.
②	How to quantify long-term effects of less effective community outreach?
②	Can we compensate employees or volunteers who help with cleaning or restoration?
⊘	Is the insurance company using an independent building or equipment consultant to prepare a bid? Who are these consultants? Who are they working for? Do they only work for insurance companies?
⊘	How does our policy address increased costs due to new codes? If our coverage is limited, what can we do about it?
⊘	Will the insurance company pay for a construction manager?

Temporary facilities. Portables. Hardscape. Temporary or permanent? How presenting our story can affect our recovery. Do we know our policy provisions?
